The safety and well-being of our employees and clients is our top priority. We are also committed to being good citizens and responsible community members. In addition to monitoring the CDC and Minnesota Department of Health for coronavirus information and direction, we have taken decisive steps to protect the safety of our staff and clients while ensuring that we provide uninterrupted professional service for our clients.

Effective Tuesday, March 17, 2020, and until further notice, MDH is transitioning to a completely remote operational environment in which nearly all of our staff will work from home. We have invested in technology to make sure that everyone can work remotely. Our office phones will be routed to each person's cell or home phone. Compensation and benefits of MDH firm members are unaffected by this transition. To reduce transmission of paper items, we intend to pay our bills electronically whenever possible and encourage clients to remit payment to us electronically. If you need the link to make a credit card payment, please email hubbard@mdh-law.com.

While we are cutting back on in-person meetings, we will of course make all court appearances and meet personally with clients whenever necessary. We are also set up to conference electronically. Each attorney and paralegal will seamlessly continue working on all client matters. E-mail is the recommended means of communications.

MDH reiterates its commitment to continue to provide exemplary and seamless service to our clients. Should you, your families, or your business require any assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to the passing of this crisis but fully support the goal of being overly cautious in order to inhibit the community spread of this virus. Be safe and remain healthy.
